

ROOSEVELT IS TOO STRENUOUS

President Gives The Canal Zone Surprise Party By His Anxiety To See Everything.

AT CULEBRA CUT THIS MORNING

Inspects Each Detail Of The Great Ditch And The Work Being Done, And What Has Already Been Accomplished.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Panama, Nov. 16.—President Roosevelt is giving one of his remarkable examples of the strenuous life during his visit at the Canal Zone. From the moment he landed yesterday he has kept the reception committee on the jump, has asked more questions, seen more and done more than any previous visitor to the Canal Zone since Uncle Sam took the job of digging the big ditch that is to connect the Atlantic with the Pacific oceans.

At Culebra Cut
This morning at seven President Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt left the hotel at Panama for a morning's trip to the famous Culebra Cut, where the most part of the great canal work is to be accomplished. He inspected every detail of the trip up and back, asked innumerable questions, talked with workmen and contractors and when he returned to the city at noon knew all there was to know regarding the work.

WILLIAM H. DORSEY HURT AT JUNEAU

Janesville Man, Injured by the Cars, Is Reported to Be in Critical Condition—Wife Summoned.
In the C. & N. W. railroad yards at Juneau, Wis., William H. Dorsey of this city was badly battered and bruised in an accident which befell him while playing his vocation of freight brakeman. A string of cars was being switched onto a sidetrack and, according to reports, the Janesville man was clinging to one of the small iron steps on one of the cars when it suddenly gave way, letting him down beneath the iron journal. Caught there he was dragged over the wooden ties for a considerable distance. His bruises and internal injuries were so serious that two physicians found it necessary to work over him most of the night. Yesterday his condition was deemed critical and his wife was summoned to his bedside.

TWO BIG FOOTBALL GAMES TOMORROW

Eastern-Western Games at Philadelphia and Minneapolis Attract Country-Wide Attention.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 16.—East and west will collide on the gridiron at Franklin field tomorrow, when the fast University of Michigan eleven will exchange courtesies and punts with the University of Pennsylvania. The Michigan players are on the scene and appear to be in condition to put up the battle of the season. It is the first time in a number of years that a western eleven has come east to play and this fact has served to add to the interest in the contest. The records of the two elevens so far this season have been such that they form a very poor basis on which to "dope" out the result of tomorrow's game. Both sides appear confident of the outcome. Many rooters for the maize and blue have come to town with the Michigan players and they are displaying a disposition to take up the Pennsylvania money as readily as it is offered. The game promises to attract the largest attendance of any played here this season, there being an almost unprecedented demand for tickets.

Indians vs. Minnesota
Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 17.—With their bright records for the season, at stake, the Carlisle Indians and the University of Minnesota eleven will meet on Northrop field tomorrow. The Minnesota team this season has taken front rank among the western elevens, while the Indians have proven their right to occupy a similar position among the eastern colleges. Interest in the contest is at fever heat and an enormous crowd will witness the game.

NO INCIDENT WITH BRAZIL AMBASSADOR

Merely Refused to Answer a Lot of Printed Questions That Were Given Him.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—There is no "Brazilian incident," according to Ambassador Nabuco, who arrived in Washington today. Secretary Root called at the embassy early today for the purpose of expressing regrets for this government for the incident purporting to have occurred in New York yesterday. The new ambassador told him he had been merely presented with a paper containing a list of questions and that he had declined to answer them; that was all there was to the matter. He, therefore, said there was no complaint to make.

BLASTING ON RIVER STREET FOR SEWER

Big Rock Ledge Just Beyond Railroad Viaduct Makes Excavating Difficult.
To-day the sewer on North River street at the proper depth much blasting is necessary. The hill north of the railroad viaduct has proven to be a solid rock ledge and the Racine contractors who have the work are using dynamite to excavate. Another obstacle to the diggers has been the city water mains which were laid in the center of the street here. These, which are two-inch pipes, have been moved.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16.—The state supreme court today reversed the decision of a lower tribunal which had sent David B. Sherrick, former auditor of the state, to the penitentiary for an indefinite term, having found him guilty of embezzling state funds. The supreme court's decision orders a retrial of the case, holding that Sherrick did not embezzle state moneys as the stolen cash belonged to insurance companies and not the state. Sherrick has been in prison several months and he will probably be released on bond.

The appeal was first heard last month before the court of review of the second department, and which, having heard the arguments of counsel, met again two weeks ago to prepare its decision. GASOLINE EXPLOSION IN GALBRAITH HOME

Nearly Resulted in Serious Fire on Wednesday—Servant Girl Badly Burned.
As the result of an explosion of a can of gasoline in the basement washroom of the Graham Galbraith home, 105 Sinclair street, Wednesday afternoon, Aeghes Goss, a servant girl, sustained serious burns and the residence property narrowly escaped destruction by fire. The young woman, with a companion, was engaged in the work of cleaning some of the woodwork and was using the volatile oil in the process. The explosion occurred as she was in the act of touching a lighted match to the gas jet. James Henderson, who was working near by, came to the rescue and the fortunate circumstance of the floor being constructed of cement enabled him to put out the flames which had been started about the can. Dr. Charles Sutherland was summoned to dress the injuries sustained by the young woman. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

GRANDPA DAVIS IS EIGHTY-THREE TODAY

Ex-Candidate for Vice Presidency Like Man of Sixty Though Past Four Score.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Belknap, W. Va., Nov. 16.—At the home of ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, who was the candidate of the democrats for vice-president two years ago, many messages of congratulation were received today on the occasion of Mr. Davis' eighty-third birthday. Mr. Davis took a keen interest in the recent election. He continues to give personal attention to his vast business interests and bears the weight of his years lightly. To the person meeting and conversing with him, he does not appear to be more than 60 years of age. In fact, he is more active than the average man of 60. His health is excellent; his constitution strong, and his mind alert. He divides his time between this city and Baltimore, of which city he was long a resident and which is still the center of many of his interests. In Baltimore he is frequently seen in company with the venerable Senator Whyte, the two being life-long friends and life-long democrats.

COST OF "RED TAPE" IN ENGLISH PARISH

Cost of Arranging to Sell Dilapidated Cottage Was $15 and Proceeds $5.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, Nov. 16.—An example of red tape is supplied from Lincolnshire, where the parishioners of Horsington applied to the Home Office for permission to pull down a dilapidated cottage and sell the materials. This was given by the local government board, on being asked for its sanction, directed a further parish meeting to be held and a poll of the parish was subsequently demanded. The cost of the poll was about $15, while the materials of the old cottage realized $5, to say nothing of the delay and official correspondence over such a trivial matter.

WORLD'S RICHEST BABY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Son Of Second Duke Of Westminster Will In Time Receive Annual Income Of Two Million Dollars.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
London, Nov. 16.—Edward George Hugh Grosvenor is the name of the richest baby in the world and today was his second birthday. He is the heir of the second Duke of Westminster and King Edward is his godfather. It is safe to assert that compared with this baby's prospective wealth the fortune of little John Nicholas Brown, "the richest baby in America," is but a bagatelle.
His father's yearly income is $1,000,000, which will double itself in thirty-five years and be greatly increased by the time he gets the fortune. He will have three splendid homes. Two are country estates that cover 30,000 acres and 600 acres more in London. His home in London will be Grosvenor House, as this has long been the ancestral home. It is one of the most splendid houses in London and is wonderfully spacious. The rooms are all large, decorated handsomely and embellished with rare objects of art brought from many parts of the world. This house has a great ballroom, where the King, Queen and greatest lords and ladies of England are entertained frequently.
Just now this third Duke of Westminster is a healthy, happy baby with golden hair and blue eyes. He is perfectly unconscious of his great chests filled with enough fine clothes and baby outfits to clothe half a dozen infants and smiles quite as contentedly when his English nurse forgets the gold beads and baby pins set with diamonds and other precious stones. The Duke's little sister is a few years older than he and is more capable of appreciating the splendor she enjoys. Little Lady Ursula Mary Olivia Grosvenor is a quaint little girl and for four years, until the stark brought to her parents an heir and to her a baby brother, she ruled the house alone. She is fond of him and does not feel that the arrival of a boy and heir dethroned her from the queenship that was hers as the first baby.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Beloit, Wis., Nov. 16.—With rejoicing, but without any celebration, the Hon. Clinton Babbitt passed his seventy-fifth birthday at his rural home in the northeastern part of the city today. He is in excellent health and feeling as young as he did a score of years ago. Mr. Babbitt is one of the best known men in Southern Wisconsin and is one of the few democrats ever elected to congress from the first district. His term was from 1890 to 1892. Despite his political complexion he is a friend of many prominent republicans and once he entertained Governor "Jerry" Rusk at his home here. Mr. Babbitt has been prominently in other than political ways. From 1885 to 1890 he was secretary of the Wisconsin State Agricultural society. He was also postmaster under Cleveland. In Beloit every one knows Mr. Babbitt. He has been a resident here since 1853 and has lived on his present farm for the past thirty-nine years. GOOD ROADS ARE VERY ESSENTIAL

COMMUNICATION ON THIS INTER-ESTING SUBJECT BELOW.

PLINY NORCROSS' LETTER

What the Movement Really Means to Accomplish is Explicitly Explained by President of Association.

Editors' Gazette: I assume that your interest in the matter of good roads in this county and state is strong enough to induce you to accept any correspondence upon that subject.

Some of my suggestions which appeared in your paper of Oct. 25 have been considered. Your readers do not not at all favor the proposed sample road from Beloit via Janesville to Edgerton.

It is quite likely that I failed to state my proposition very clearly. It was discussed yesterday by some of the farmers at our good roads meeting in the courthouse. Evidently they thought that the whole county would be expected to pay for such road.
They also intimated that the automobile owners furnished the main incentive to the building of such road.
Certainly the article in question does not warrant such a conclusion.

If the people of this county should ever determine to abandon the present wasteful practice of repairing highways and should adopt a sensible plan, they could not at once improve or rebuild every road in the county.

It is but fair to suppose that the main traveled roads would first receive attention, then other less traveled roads would be considered.
The manner of improving as well the order of procedure for such improvement would rest with the board of supervisors, or with some committee appointed by the board. Petitions signed by bona fide owners of land in the different townships would be presented to the county board, asking for road improvement.

Owners of land abutting upon roads to be improved, as well as those persons living near such road, will be expected to pay more than those who are not so much benefited. While it would be unfair that a few persons should stand in the way of the great majority of the taxpayers, yet the experience of other states has shown a most remarkable unanimity of sentiment.

When a really good highway has been built in a county it has gained the admiration and support of all the people.

My former article contains this sentence: "If the three cities (Beloit, Janesville and Edgerton) and six towns, Beloit, Tipton, Rock, La Prairie, Janesville and Fulton, should be assessed according to their comparative value, as shown by the tax rolls, and the full payment for such roads should extend over a period of ten years, the burden would be very light and the result would be very acceptable."

Certainly there is nothing in this sentence that points to a tax upon the whole county. Owners upon this proposed road would pay more than district owners. Nor does it contain any intimation that the owners of motor cars are the main supporters of the plan.

I don't know that such a thing can be done, but as a taxpayer in the city of Janesville and in the town of Fulton, I should be very glad to see it done and would very cheerfully pay my proportion of the expense. The people of the county will never be convinced of the value of real good roads until they can see a real good road.

The whole object of such a road is shown in this statement: "It costs too much." Show me any other line of road of equal length where the available funds for its construction could be as readily obtained as this line which I name, from Beloit to Edgerton.

But I do not insist that this particular road shall be built. My sole contention is, that if we make any real substantial progress along this line of improvement we must have a sample road—a road that our people can see and use and know its cost and its benefit.

If the route which I suggest is not the best, then name another—Milton to Janesville, Emerald Grove to Janesville, Tipton to Beloit, Evansville to Edgerton or Janesville.

All that I ask is that we shall concentrate our energy and efforts upon one sample road at first.

No one will be seriously injured by the building of such a road. If we don't like it, then drop all further attempt in this effort of improvement.
It has been suggested that we build a mile or two from the city of Janesville out on each of the main roads into the country. I should not object to that, but it is apparent that the outlying townships would not pay any part of the expense. The benefit would accrue to Janesville alone and of course we should pay the bill. Another thing, such short stubs of good roads would not be a fair test in a county road trial.

Let us build a road of some length and character.

If those who object to my plan will present something better I shall be content.

Yesterday we had a very interesting discussion at our good roads meeting. Not many were present, but I am sure that it was instructive and pleasant. Mr. Ezra Goodrich, the pioneer good road builder in this county, gave us his experience in the town of Milton.

Thirty years ago when the road from Milton to Milton Junction, a distance of one and one-fourth miles, was practically impassible he proposed to put a coating of gravel over the entire surface. It was opposed because it would cost much. It was argued that the road was good enough as it then was, except a short time in each year.

Mr. Goodrich offered to put a good coat of gravel on the road for $500 or $400 a mile. The offer was accepted.
From that date to the present Mr. Goodrich has had plenty of offers to gravel the roads in his own township.

For thirty years that town has improved its roads in a practicable manner.
Mr. Goodrich claims that he could do better if he was allowed a wider margin for the purchase of machinery, so that he could get a better assortment of gravel. He does not favor state aid. He insists that when we send our tax money to Madison that we get only a part of it back again. He favors better roads, but he fears excessive taxation if we adopt the state aid plan.

Mr. Thomas of La Prairie also gave his experience in the use of gravel upon the roads of his town. He said that gravel taken from the pit in December was in better condition for

Tricked by Dyspepsia

The Doctor Couldn't Tell Where
the Trouble Lay.

"For the past seven years, I have been a victim of dyspepsia and chronic constipation and have consulted the most noted specialists, but to no purpose. I have tried every remedy known to me, but to no purpose. I have given up all hope of recovery until I received your advertisement for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I bought a box and took them as directed and in less than five days noticed that I was receiving more benefit than from any remedy I had used before. I continued to use the tablets after each meal for one month and by that time my stomach
was in a healthy condition, capable
of digesting anything which my increasing age demanded. I have not experienced any return of my former trouble, though three months have elapsed since taking your remedy."

Upon the recommendation of a close friend, I purchased a 50c package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and in less than five days noticed that I was receiving more benefit than from any
remedy I had used before. I continued
to use the tablets after each meal for
one month and by that time my stomach
was in a healthy condition, capable
of digesting anything which my
increasing age demanded. I have not experienced any return of my former
trouble, though three months have
elapsed since taking your remedy."

We wish that you could see with your own eyes the countless other bona fide signed letters from grateful men and women all over the land who have suffered years of agony with dyspepsia, tried every known remedy and consulted eminent specialists without result, until they gave Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial. Like the doctor above, they couldn't locate the scotch of the trouble.

Dyspepsia is a disease which has long baffled physicians. So difficult of location is the disease that cure seems next to miraculous. There is only one way to treat dyspepsia—to supply the elements which nature has withdrawn to perform this function, and to cause them to enter the digestive organs, supplying the fluids, which, lacking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, alone fill these requirements, as is shown by the fact that 40,000 physicians in the United States and Canada unite in recommending them for their patients with stomach disorders.

We do not claim or expect Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to cure anything but disordered conditions of the stomach and other digestive organs, but this they never fail to do. They work upon the inner lining of the stomach and intestines, stimulate the gastric glands and aid in the secretion of juices necessary to digestion.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box.
One box will cure, if taken as directed.

Calls It Simple.
Milton Junction, Wis., Nov. 12, 1906.
Puzzle Editor—Dear Sir: Thought at first the Skidoo Problem was a hard one but have decided to call it very simple. I solve it in this way:
There were 23 boxes and the son placed one penny in each box making 23 pennies, which it divided by eleven leaves one, only one left over. Hoping to secure one of your prizes,
I remain, yours truly,
MRS. E. K. KYES.
R. F. D., Milton Junction.

588,657,601. If this number be divided by 23 the quotient will be 1,224,286, 437,387, or the number of pennies in each box. If the entire number of pennies be divided by all numbers from 2 to 22 inclusive, it will leave 1 for a remainder each time.

I remain, yours respectfully,
MISS EMMA M. HANSON,
Box 35, Avalon, Wis.

Favorite is 529.
Janesville, Wis., Nov. 11.
Mr. Editor: Sir—On seeing your puzzle advertisement in the Gazette last evening I will try to solve it. It will multiply 23 by 23 which is 529; 529 divided from 2 to 22 leaves one over each time; 529 divided by 23 leaves no remainder. The answer to this problem in my way is 23 skidoo.

MISS MAY PREMO,
452 S. High St., City.

500 new pennies will be given to the person who sends in the most skillfully worded correct solution to the problem. 23 pennies will be given to the five other contestants whose solutions are considered by the judges to be the next most ingenious. Skidoo pins will be given to the other contestants whose solutions are considered unusually cleverly worded out.

If a coin collector had an accumulation of pennies and would give him the entire lot if he could put them in boxes, the same number in each box.
There was an odd number of pennies so that if he put an equal number in each of two boxes there would be one penny left over; in a like manner he figured on 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 boxes, but in every case if he put an equal number in each box there would be one (only one) penny left over. His father replied:
"His father thought it impossible to perform the feat. His father replied:
"SKIDOO—23 for you!" The son then put the entire lot of pennies in 23 boxes, the same number in each box. How many pennies were there?
To make the problem plain: The entire number of pennies was a number, which if divided by any number from 2 to 22 inclusive there will be a remainder of one (only one) and if divided by 23 there will be no remainder.

Before The Footlights.

De Wolf Hopper, the elongated comedian who has made millions laugh in his grotesque comic opera success, "Happyland," has unlimited opportunities in which his peculiar and somewhat unusual methods are permitted full sway. Not since the days of "Wang" has he had anything which permitted him such excellent opportunities. This season he is surrounded by a particularly capable company and with a decidedly noteworthy production, makes an attraction far superior to the ordinary comic opera offering. "Happyland" complete in every detail, nothing whatever being omitted, will visit the Myers Theatre Tuesday, Nov. 20.

The Popular Kinodrome Show will appear at the Myers theatre next Sunday, matinee and evening, presenting everything of new and late issue in the way of excellent moving pictures. This attraction makes an ideal entertainment from every point of view and is welcomed in every city with entire approval of the theatre-going public as a meritorious exhibition that generally proves to be fully as instructive as amusing and consequently it always draws large and appreciative audiences.

George M. Cohan's famous laugh provoking success "Little Johnny Jones" will be presented at the Myers theatre Saturday, Nov. 17, matinee and evening. "Little Johnny Jones" was first revealed two years ago.

Since that time it has scored phenomenal success in several of the most important eastern cities, the longest being in New York where its record is now thirty-eight weeks.

In writing "Little Johnny Jones" Mr. Cohan departed from the beaten paths and gave to the American stage what many dramatic reviewers have taken occasion to say is "a new style of musical melodrama." That he hit the popular fancy is now a matter of theatrical history.

There is a well defined plot running through the three acts of "Little Johnny Jones," and also two well sustained love stories. These, together with the innumerable chorus and ensemble numbers, and special solo punctuations are a few of the reason found for the tremendous success that has come to this celebrated Cohan play.

In the cast to be seen here many well known names are found, in fact the supporting company is practically the same that have been with the organization since its birth. Bobby Barry will be seen in the title role, while Tom Lewis and Sam Ryan will be found in the familiar creations of the "Unknown" and "Timothy D. McGeary." Others in the cast are Jack Raffel, Jack Montgomery, William C. Meehan, C. J. Harrington, William Seymour, Tom Penfold, Edward Shee, Harry Plerson, Harry Kittedne, Lottie Medley, Ida Mantwell, Hazel Lowry, Stella Tracey and Adele Rafter.

Among the special song hits in "Little Johnny Jones" are the following: "The Cecil in London Town," "They're All My Friends," "Mam'selle Fauchette," "Up in the Air," "Nestling in a New York Tree," "Yankee Doodle Boy," "Off to the Derby," "Girls from the U. S. A.," "Sailors from the St. Hourrah," "Captain of the Ten Day Boat," "Good Bye Flo," "So Long Sing Song," "Good Old California," "A Girl I Know," "Give My Regards to Broadway," "March of the Frisco Chinks," "There's Really Nothing New Beneath the Sun."

"Little Johnny Jones" is perhaps one of the largest productions in a scenic and electrical way that has taken the road in recent years and this particular production is entirely new having been used for the first time about six weeks ago. This applies to the costumes as well.

"Little Johnny Jones" company by the way, numbers 50 singing and dancing people and the chorus is said to be not only a fascinating one but they are also credited with having voices that can really interpret Mr. Cohan's compositions.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, November 14, 1866.—An Alderman Stealing Plank.—One of our aldermen recently played off a joke on one of his brother officials that is too good to keep. Let B. stand for one alderman and C. for the other. Mr. C. had sold a lot of plank belonging to the city, to a citizen, for the sum of ten dollars, and took the money. In the meantime B. wanted to build some crossings in his ward and so took from the pile what was necessary therefor. When C. and the purchaser went for the plank, the alderman returned the money (the only time on record when an Alderman was known to do such a thing) saying as he did so that he was named to take it. B. thinks it a good thing for the ward to have the crossings built, and a good joke on C. the way he got the plank.

Musical Convention and Concert.—Most of our people and some of our singers seem insensible to the fact that Prof. Emerson, the most accomplished and skillful conductor in New England, is holding a convention in this city, assisted by Profs. Hood and Starkweather of Rockford. They gave their first concert last evening and though there were about only fifty singers, they rendered the pieces performed with a power and excellence

Alcohol and Gasoline.

Tests of alcohol and gasoline in the internal combustion engines used in motor vehicles and motor boats indicate that although alcohol has only about 70 per cent as much heating power as gasoline, it can be used with 20 per cent less operating waste.

Trick of Motorists.

A firm of London motor manufacturers supplies its customers with specially colored confetti, which the motorists sprinkle when running through a police trap. Drivers who follow at once read the sign and act accordingly.

A Nation of Innkeepers.

An English authority notes a sign of the return of good times to this country in the improved business of British hotels, which is reported to be very marked. This looks as if the tight little isle were beginning to consider itself a summer resort instead of a great industrial commonwealth.

The Vegetarian's Debt.

Brighton has been indebted by tramps recently, and this sign is on a well-known residence: "We are vegetarians, but our dog is not."—Boston Record.

Sicily's Output of Sulphur.

Sicily produces about 500,000 tons of sulphur annually, or 80 per cent of the entire production of the world.

SHORTAGE FREIGHT CARS
According to Chairman McChord of the Kentucky railway commission, "The average freight car works only an hour per day. That is, it is idle on sidings, etc., for twenty-three hours out of the twenty-four. The freight locomotive works only sufficiently to haul a freight train fifty-four miles per day, and thus is almost as idle as the freight car. There is no plausible reason why the car or the engine should remain in idleness when the factory works ten hours per day. If the average could be raised even to one hour and a half per day, it would relieve the congestion on the lines."

This accounts for the shortage in transportation facilities, which is a common complaint in all parts of the country. It is also an item of expense which is never taken into account by people who look upon railroads as gridding monopolies.

It is safe to say every railroad of any magnitude has plenty of cars and engines which don't earn interest on the cost of investment because of enforced idleness.

The farmer complains because he is obliged to pay ten dollars a car to get his best to market. The car is idle from one to three days in loading, and the balance of the week in unloading. If the service pays the company two dollars a day for the use of the car, including demurrage, it is about all that can be expected.

Every freight yard is full of idle cars, many of them thousands of miles from home, but it is railroad property and who cares if the company does lose money? Tax them on the ad valorem system or any other plan so that they can be caught going and coming. It's only a corporation anyway, and corporations are bad, very bad.

After years of experience, and the best talent that could be employed, the railroad companies admit that they can't accommodate shippers and use their own rolling stock more than from one to two hours a day, on the average.

The railway commission is expected to accomplish great things, and it is just possible that they may be able to suggest a plan to solve this problem. If they can, it will help the railroads, as well as the general public.

FROM THE BOTTOM UP
"I thank you men from the bottom of my heart for this honor. I ain't no speechmaker and ain't going to try to make a speech, but I thank you and I promise you that all the hard work I can put in between now and the election I will try to do."

This was the speech made by William J. Connors of Buffalo, to the convention which made him chairman of the democratic state committee. Connors is called "Fingy" by his friends, a title which he gained when a dock rat and bootblack on the New York docks, by allowing a boy who wanted a mark to shoot at, to use his thumb as a target.

From the dock boy he became a Stevedore and then a vessel loading contractor. Then he went into the saloon business, and in time became proprietor of all the saloons on the water front.

A friend suggested to him, one day, that he ought to get into a more respectable business, so he went to Buffalo and bought the "Enquirer," then started the "Record," and afterward gained control of the old conservative "Buffalo Courier," which he still owns. He can read and write, but that is about all.

Soon he bought a house on exclusive Delaware avenue and instructed his gardener to put his name, William J. Connors, in letters six feet high with foliage plants on the lawn. Mrs. Metcalf, a social leader, passing in her carriage one day, noticed the decorations and said, "The poor man, he must think that he is a railroad station." "Newspaperdom," in speaking of Connors, says:

"There is a side to Connors which perhaps the world does not see. He was once asked why he had entered the newspaper field. 'I began life,' he said, 'as a poor man, working on the highway breaking stone, and on the docks as a laborer. I've got two dear little boys and I love 'em as I love my life, and I'm going to give them the best education that money can buy. I don't want them to be so situated that when anything is asked about who their father was and what he did for a living, they'll have to say that he wasn't of no consequence. When they grow up, I want them to be able to say with pride, 'My father was William J. Connors, publisher of the Buffalo Courier.'"

While this kind of a man may not be a credit to journalism, he has demonstrated what can be done by thrift and energy in this land of unequalled opportunities.

INTERESTING GOLD STATISTICS
The Wall Street Journal has recently compiled some very interesting statistics on the gold supply of the world. It may not be generally known, but one-half the money of the world is gold and it represents in round numbers $1,550,000,000.

This great block of gold is distributed as follows:
U. S. treasury.....$878,932,370
Bank of Russia.....565,000,000
Bank of France.....560,000,000
Bank of Austria.....230,000,000
Bank of Italy.....150,000,000
Bank of England.....145,000,000
Other banks.....275,000,000

It will be noticed by this table that the United States has $800,000,000 more gold than any other country in the world, but the great bulk of treasury gold is held as collateral security against gold certificates and greenbacks which are used as a circulating medium.

Of the former there are $575,000,000, and of the latter $300,000,000. The certificates are payable in gold dollar for dollar, and are secured for the full issue, while the greenbacks have back of them $150,000,000 in gold and the credit of the government, which is ample.

The time will come when the greenbacks will be retired, as they should, and this will put in circulation the gold held as collateral for them. There should also be some way devised to release the great block of gold now back of the treasury certificates. The credit of the nation ought to be good for outstanding obligations, it not, let the government go out of the banking business.

The reform mayor of San Francisco is accused of all kinds of crookedness. The relief fund is short about one million dollars, and the mayor is supposed to know something about it. President Roosevelt has taken a hand in the investigation, and government detectives are at work on the case.

Milwaukee has discovered that one telephone company is an aggravation, so the city has decided to admit competition. In due time they will make another discovery and decide that two companies are a nuisance. This is the experience of every city where the experiment has been tried.

George F. Grassie, the political critic and all-around censor of the Evening Wisconsin, will occupy a desk in the next assembly. The newspaper men of the state are fortunate in having so good a representative.

There is also levied the sum of $24,839.74 county school tax and $60,000 for general purposes. Of this $60,000 the sum of $10,000 is to redeem asylum bonds Nos. 141 to 180, inclusive, due April 1, 1907, and to pay $1,000 interest due April 1 and Oct. 1. The bonds that will be outstanding after this year amount to but $20,000. Included in the $60,000 item is also the sum of $4,500—one-tenth mill on the assessed valuation of the county—for the soldiers' relief fund, and the sum of $2,000 for the salaries of the two school superintendents.

The Rock County National bank is to be the official county depository during the forthcoming year. It offered to pay 3.51 per cent interest on daily balances as compared with the following bids of the other institutions: Merchants & Mechanics' bank—3.75 per cent; First National—3.5; Bower City bank—3.45. Last year the county money at 7.25 per cent earned $1,800 in interest for the county. On Nov. 1 this year there was about $51,000 in the treasury, but this sum has been reduced by several thousands since the board meeting.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT CHRIST CHURCH SUPPER

Over a Hundred and Thirty-five Partook of Savory Viands at the Parish House.

Over one hundred and thirty-five attended the chicken pie supper given at the Christ church parish hall last evening. The attendance was much larger than expected but the ladies were equal to the emergency and the tempting viands were served to all comers. Afterward there was a photograph concert and piano music in the parish hall. An incident not on the regular program was the arrival and opening by the recipient of a score of bulky packages addressed to George McKee. Investigation showed that they came from a like number of friends in the Pro-Tobacco club, allegiance to which he had renounced, for a month, just thirty days ago last night. The weeds with which he was expected to again enter the charmed circle were of all sizes and degrees of turpitude and the exhibit aroused curiosity and amusement but no envy on the part of the onlookers.

AFTON

Afton, Nov. 16.—A bit of sentiment entered into the general election as held here in the town of Rock last week, voters standing aside and waiting until Hon. W. H. Tripp could mark his ballot and be the first to vote after the opening of the polls.

Mr. Tripp, who is nearing his eighty-sixth birthday, was up betimes on election morning, had his flag raised at sunrise, drove four miles, and saw his ballot the first one cast, and that, too, for Davidson and Connor. Election day was an important anniversary for Mr. Tripp, for just fifty years ago that day he was elected a member of the Wisconsin legislature from the then sixth district of Rock county and during the session that winter he voted for the first republican elected to represent Wisconsin in the United States senate.

But one other member of the 1857 legislature is now living, Hon. R. B. Wentworth of Portage. Mr. Tripp is now the oldest resident and voter in the town and is very sprightly and energetic for an octogenarian.

This will be ladies' night for Shopiere and R. B. Overton of La Prairie, will act as leader. Webermeyer, La Prairie; "Wisconsin as a Manufacturing State," O. D. Antsiedel, Afton. A study of our own great commonwealth cannot help but prove of interest, and doubtless a goodly company will gather around the banquet board on this occasion.

The entertainment to be given by the Afton state graded school, will be held at Brinkman's hall, Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th, beginning at 8 o'clock sharp. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nelson was the scene of a happy gathering last Monday night when about eighty of their friends and neighbors walked in on them with well filled baskets and reminded them that the twenty-fifth anniversary of their pilgrimage together was an event which should not go by unnoticed. A very pleasant evening was spent and at about twelve o'clock the guests departed leaving with their host and hostess some beautiful gifts to commemorate the day, and many good wishes for future happiness.
